man
is a
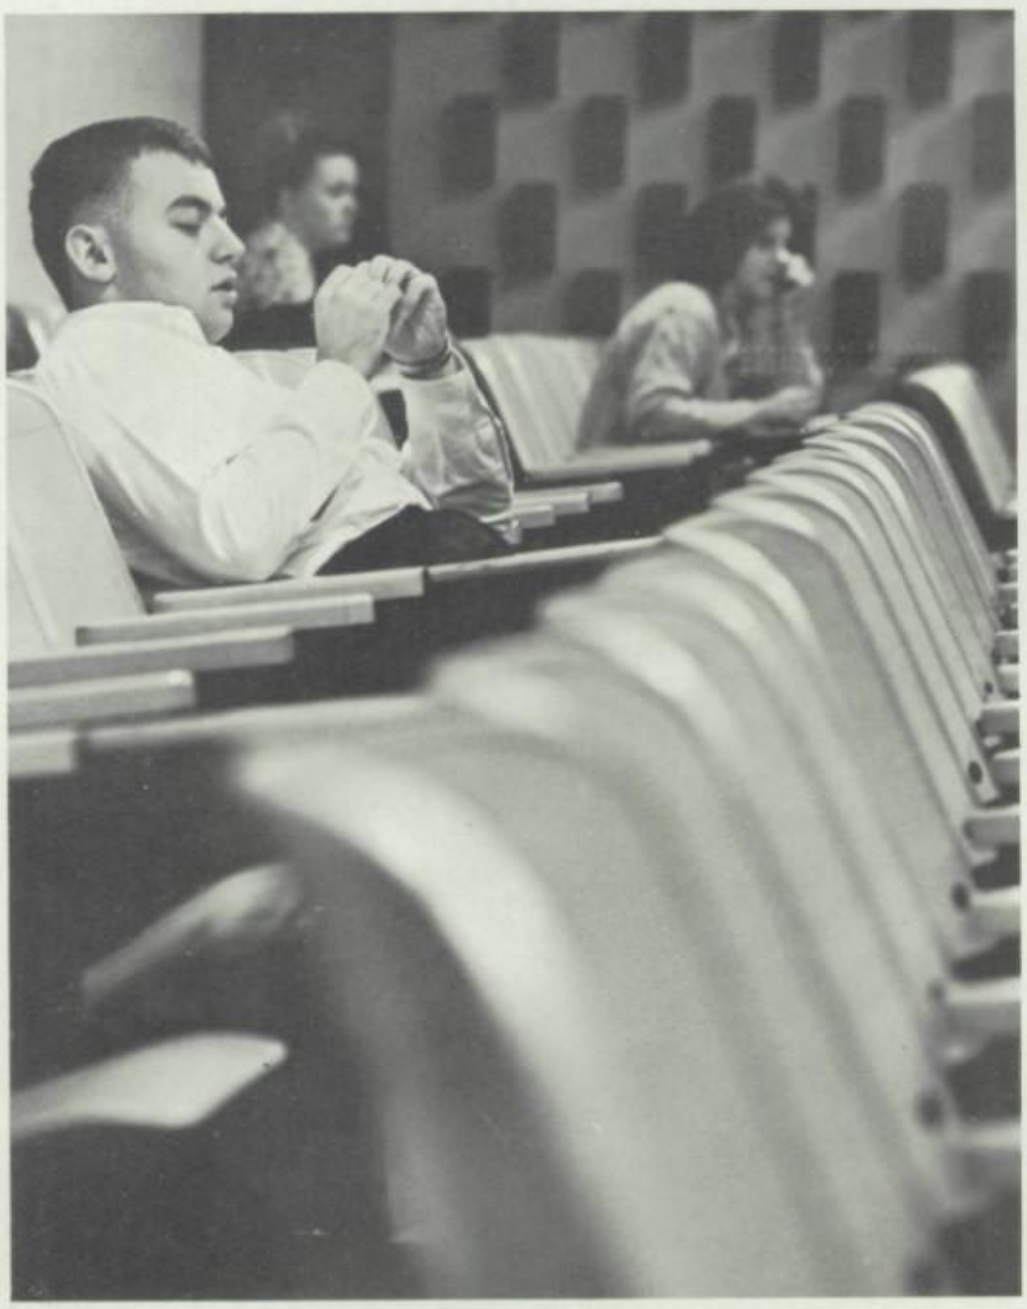
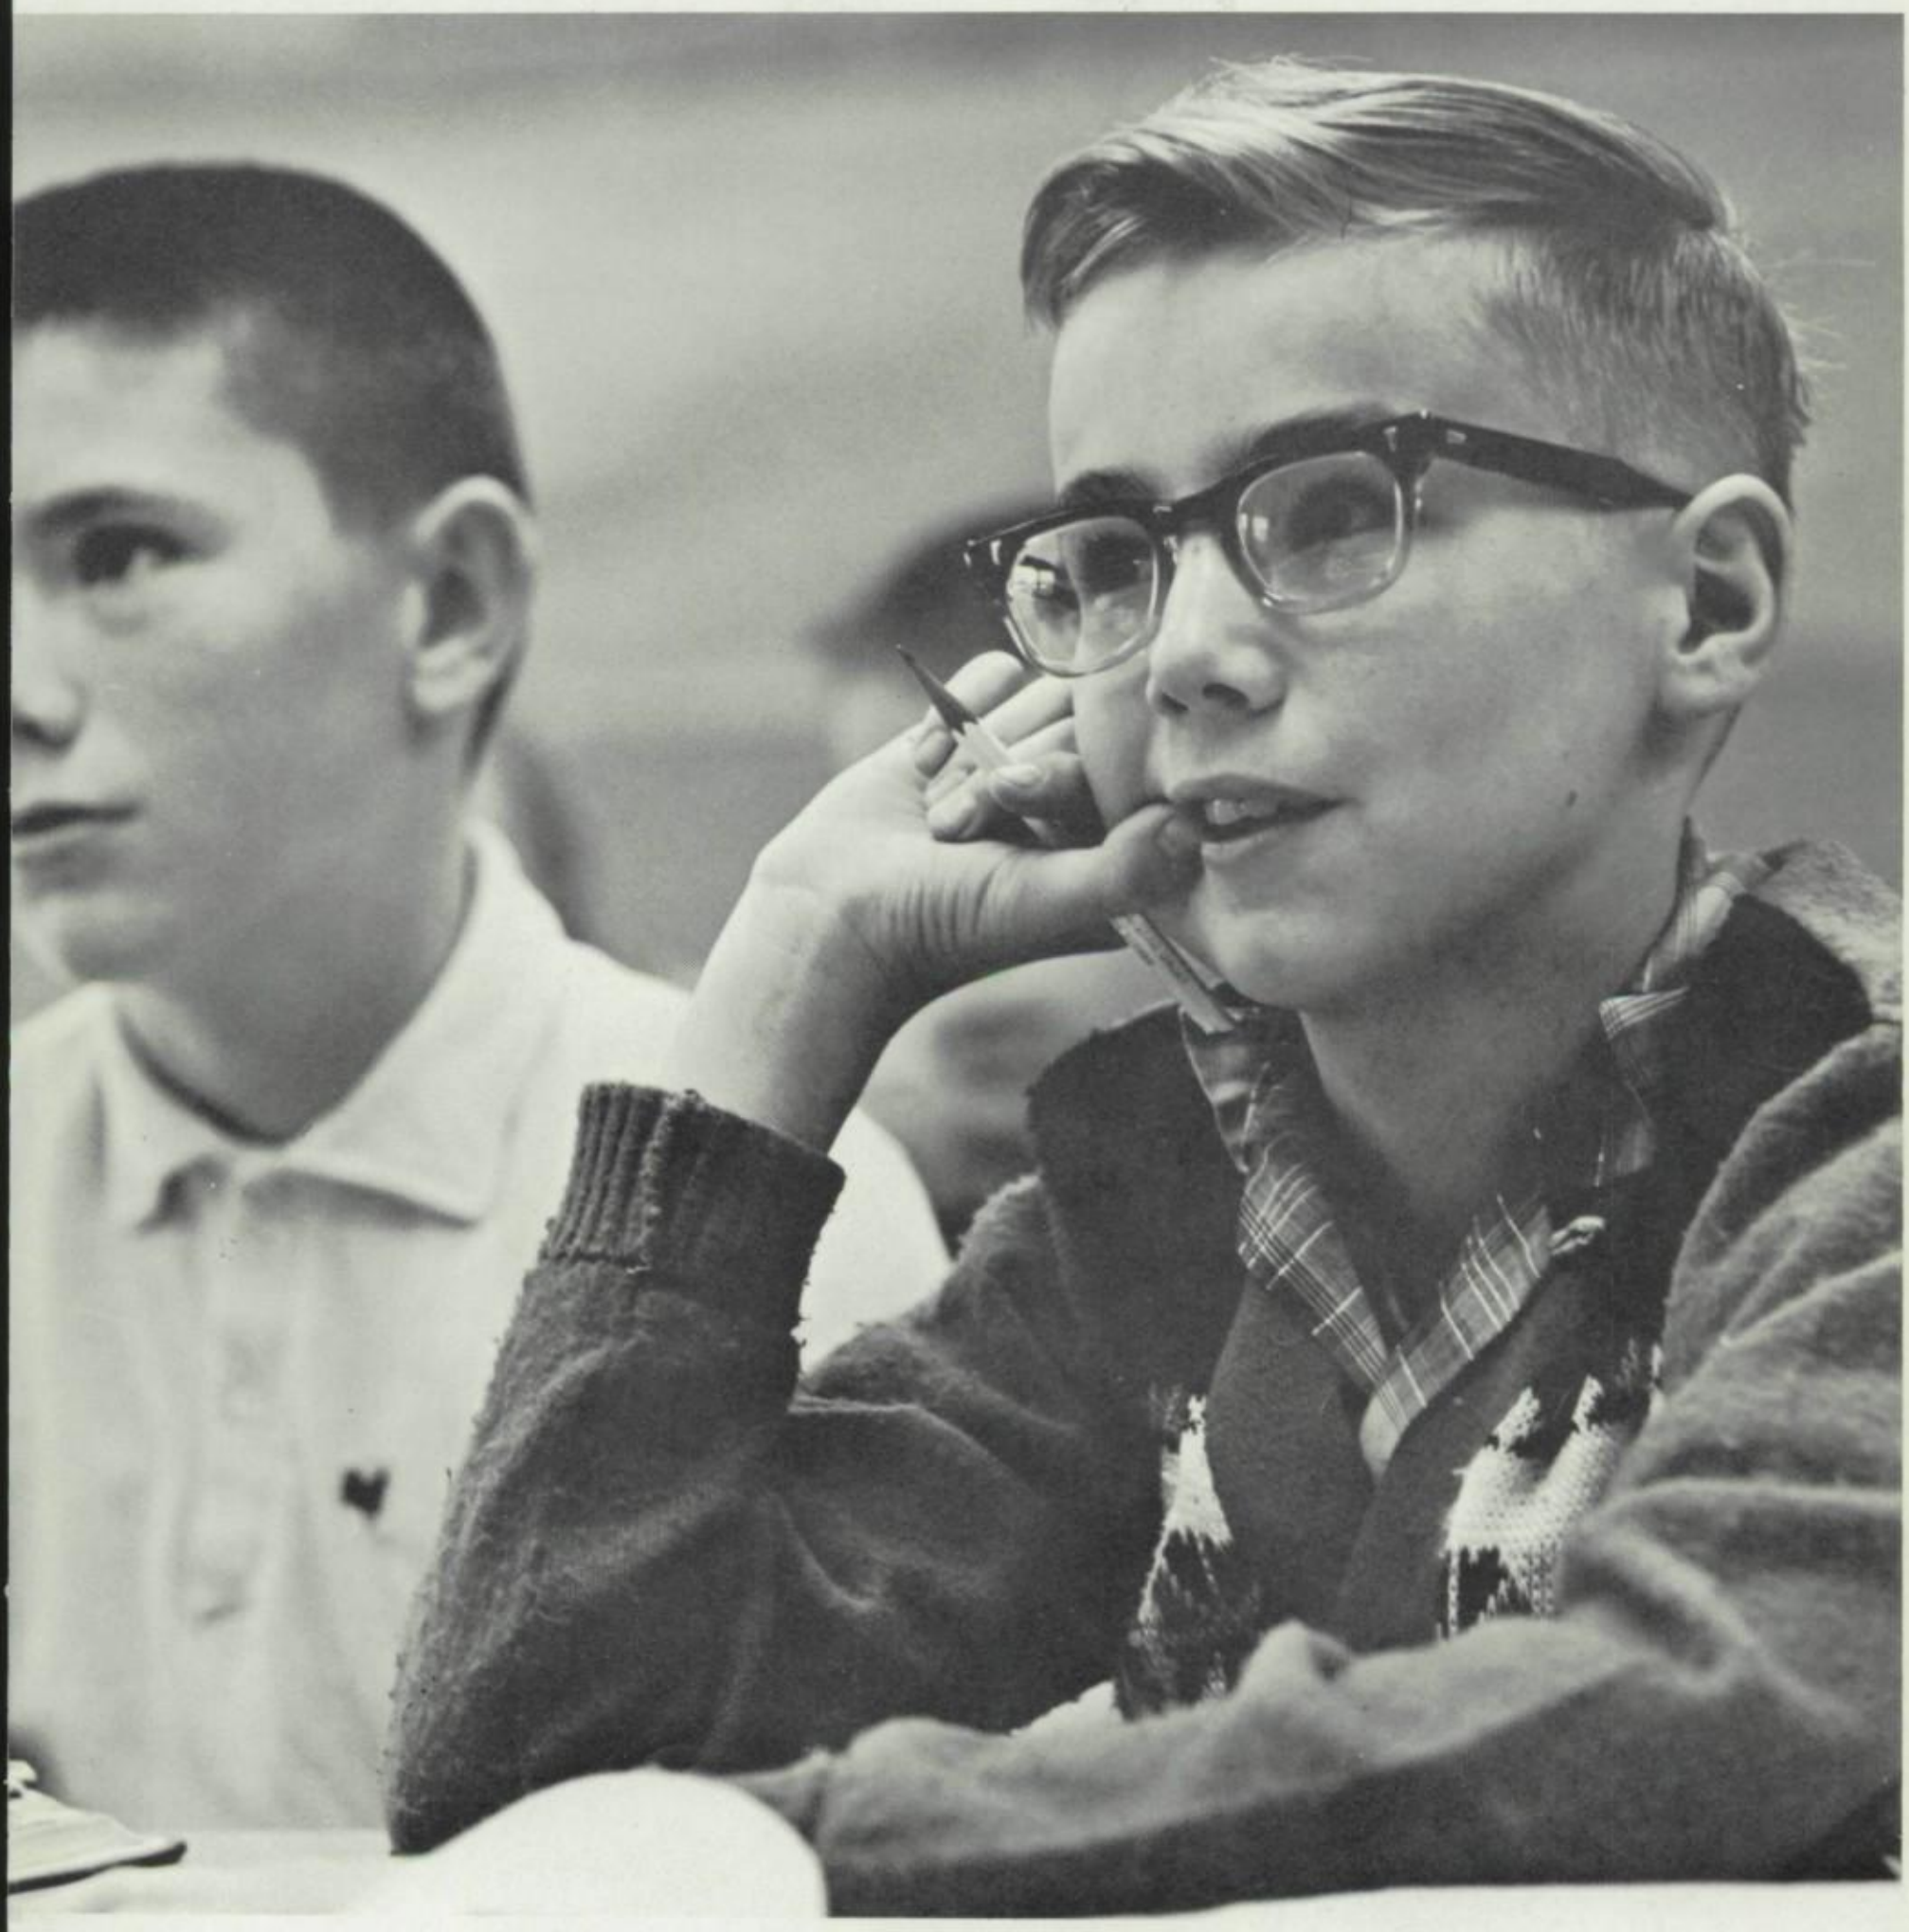
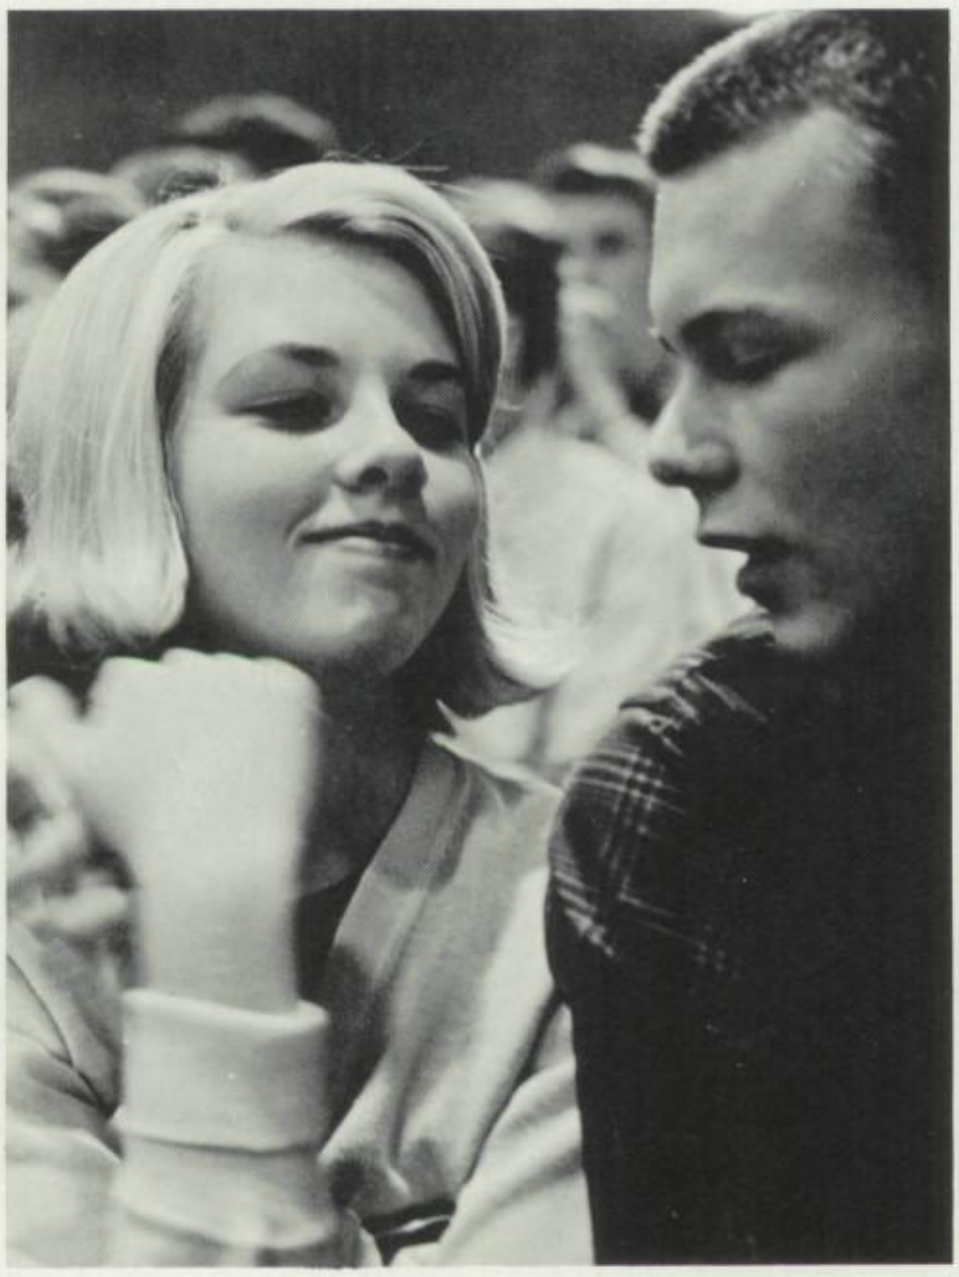
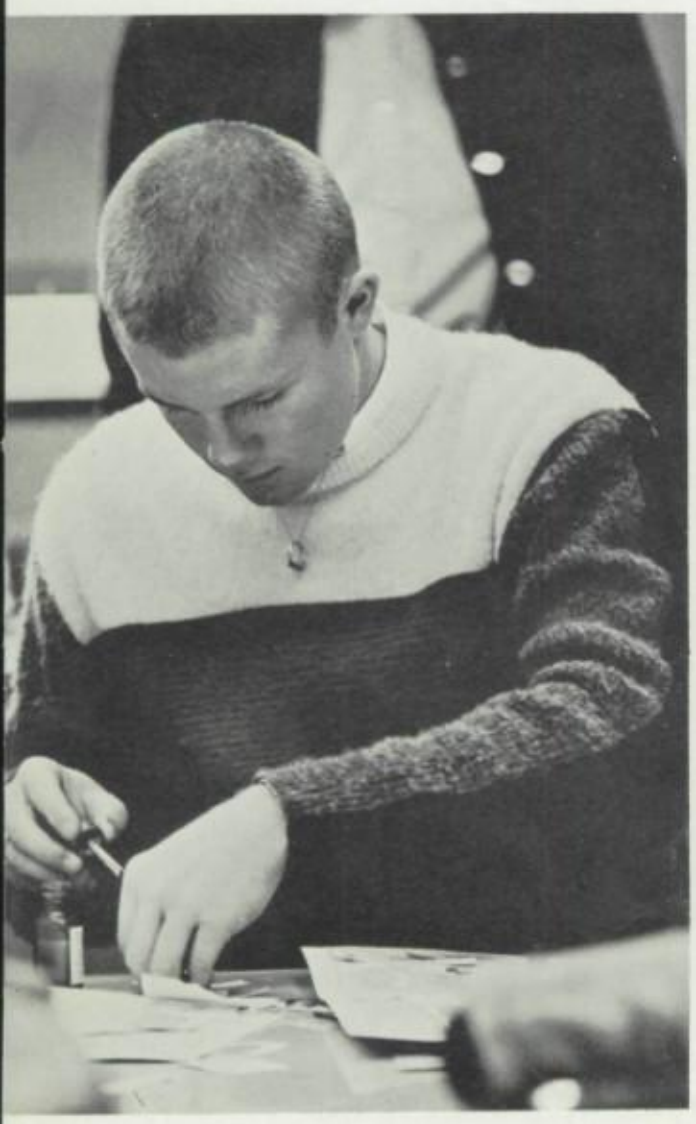
rover,
eternally seeking, searching, longing . . .
grasping for the thing
that will make him
a
complete
man.





from our friends . . .
we seek . . .
companionship,
assistance,
understanding.





the
mysteries
of life:
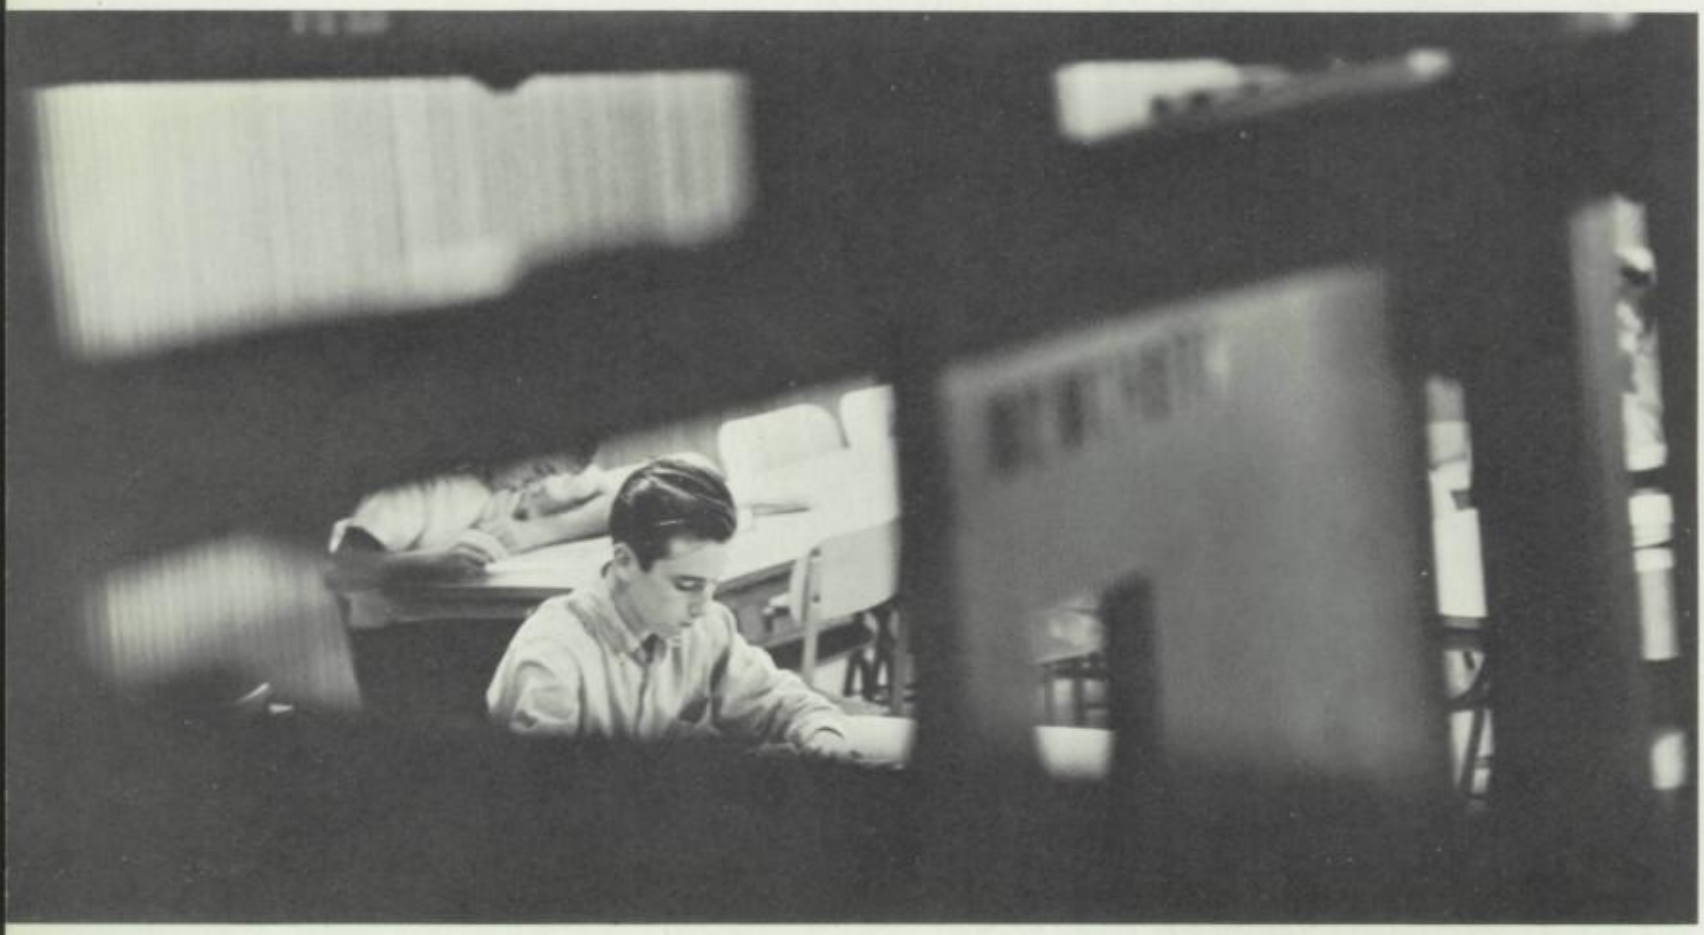
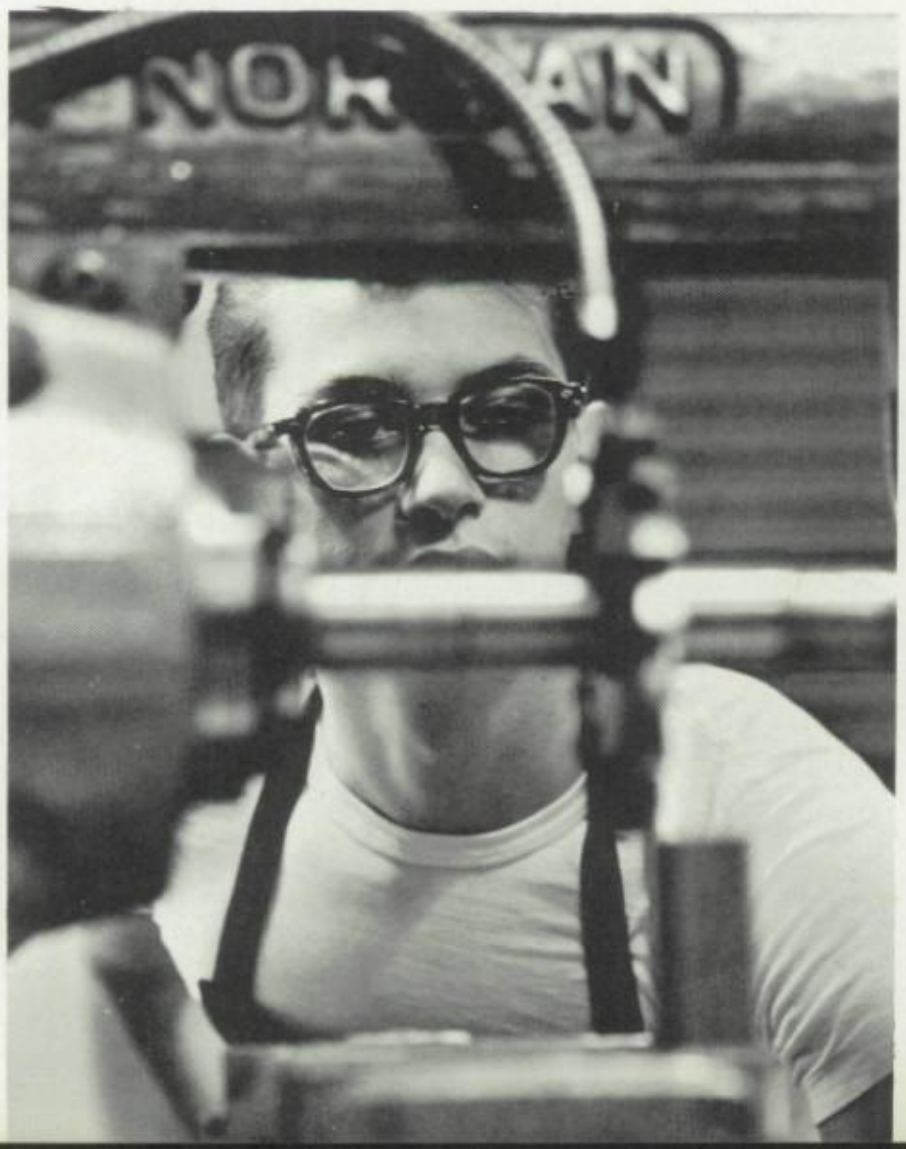
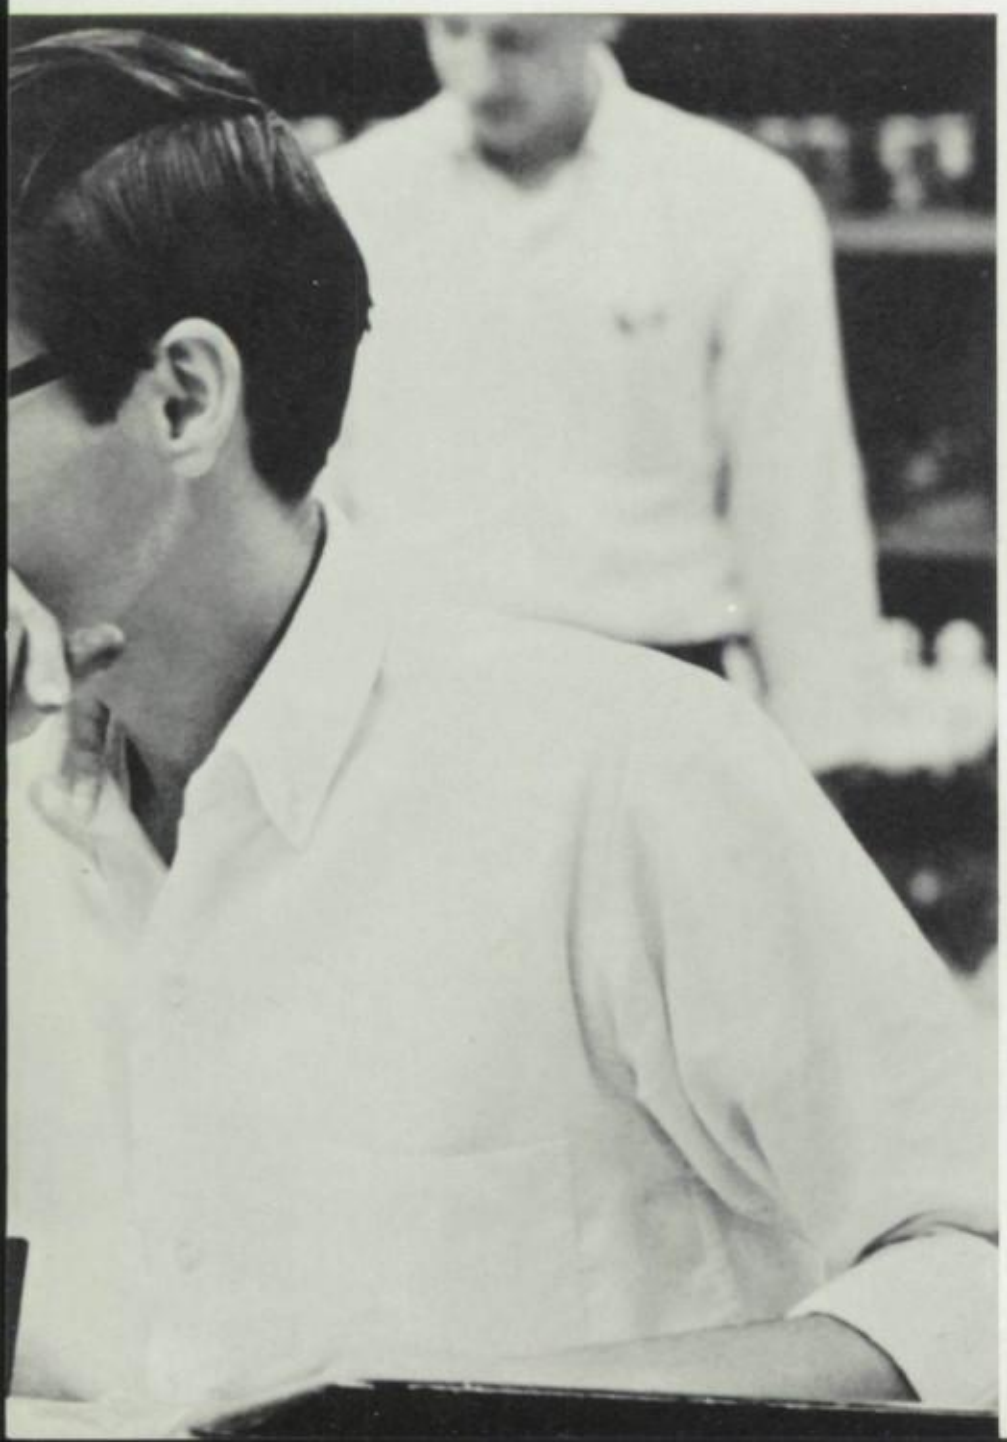
our hopes,
fears,
goals . . .

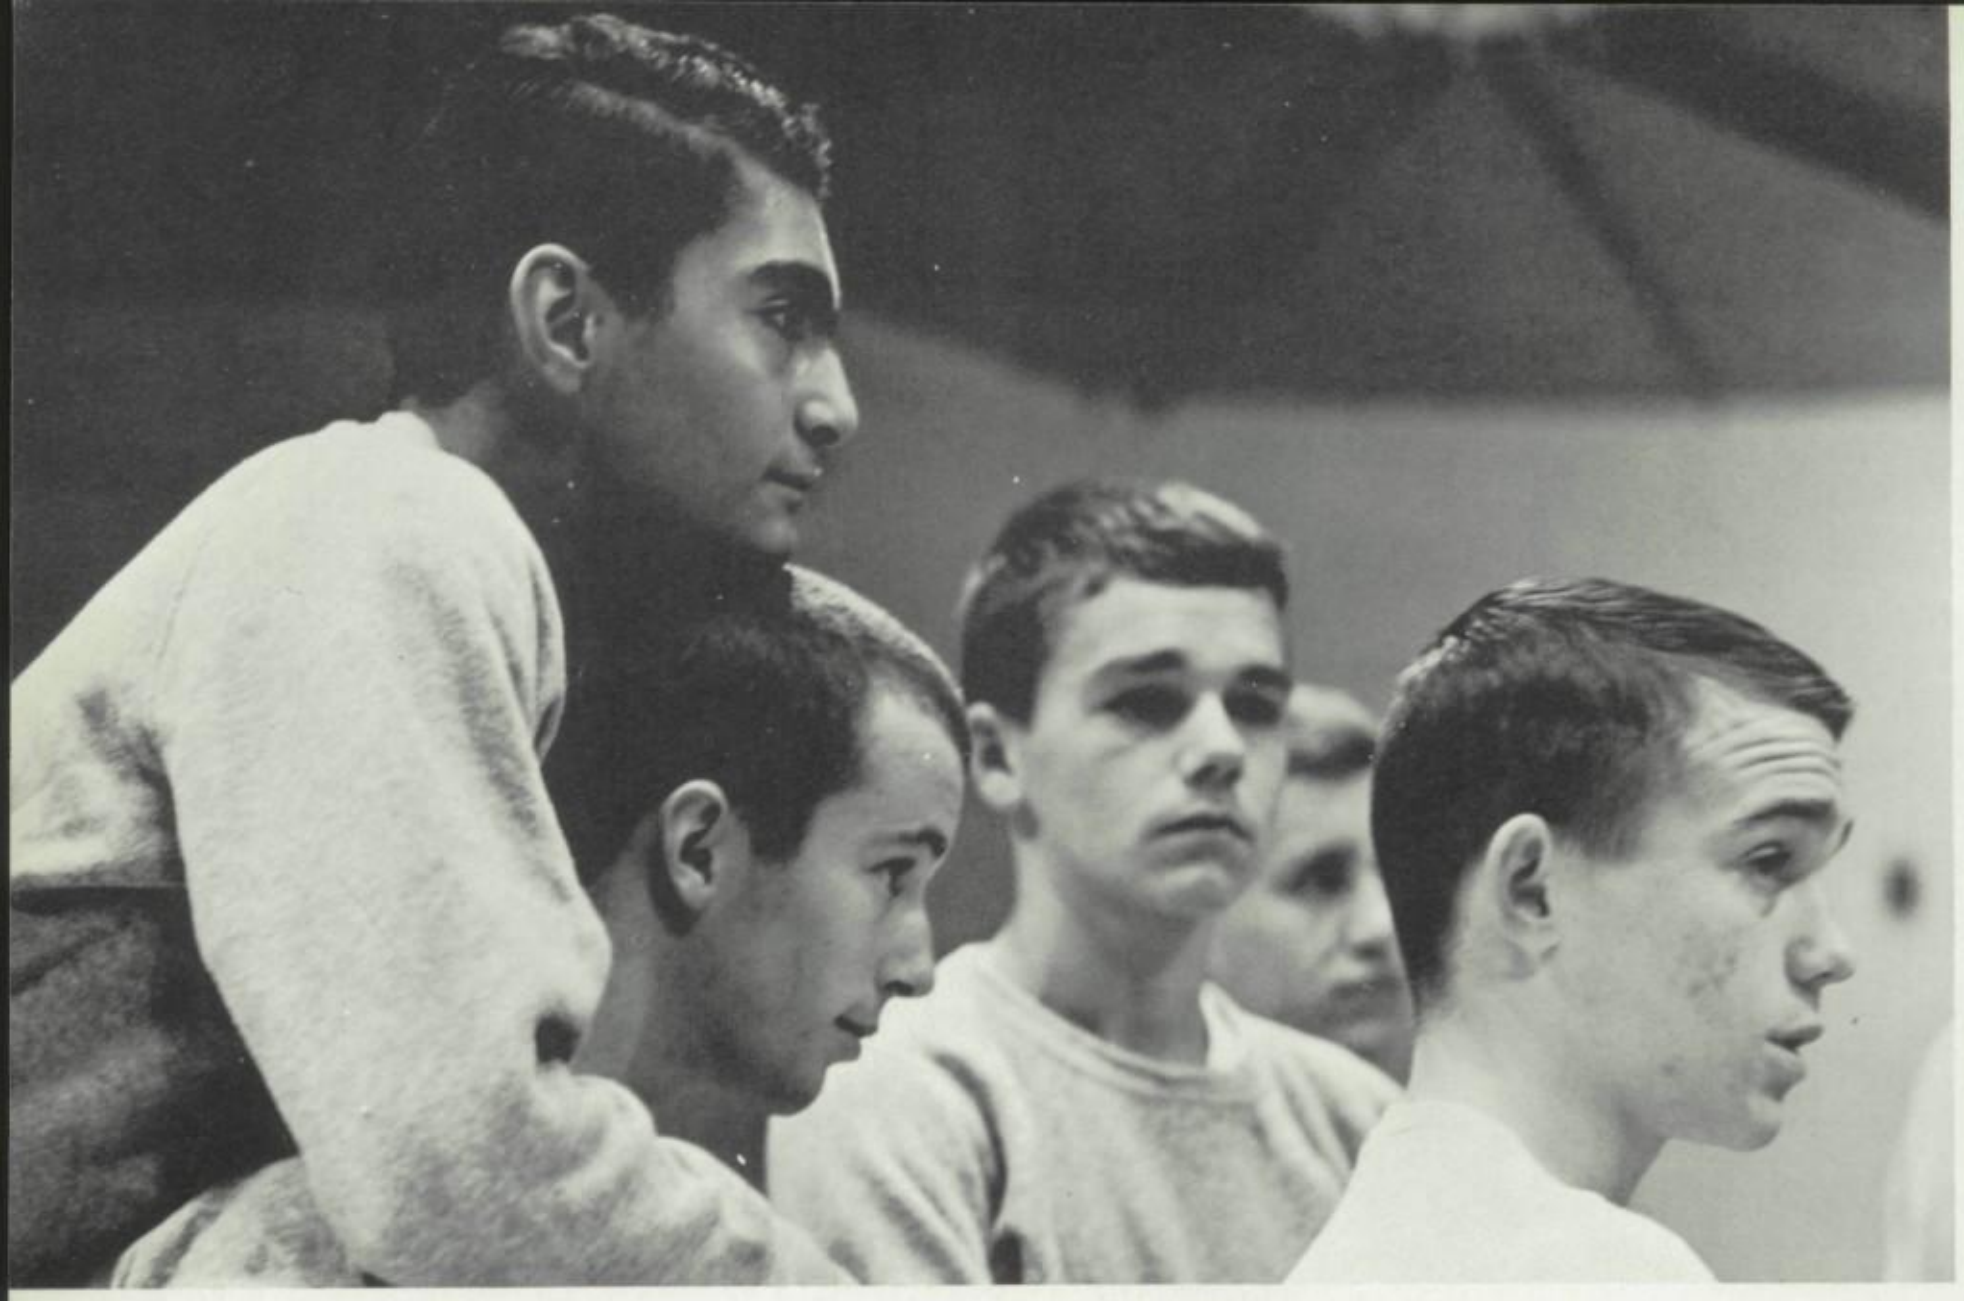




we seek
these answers . . .

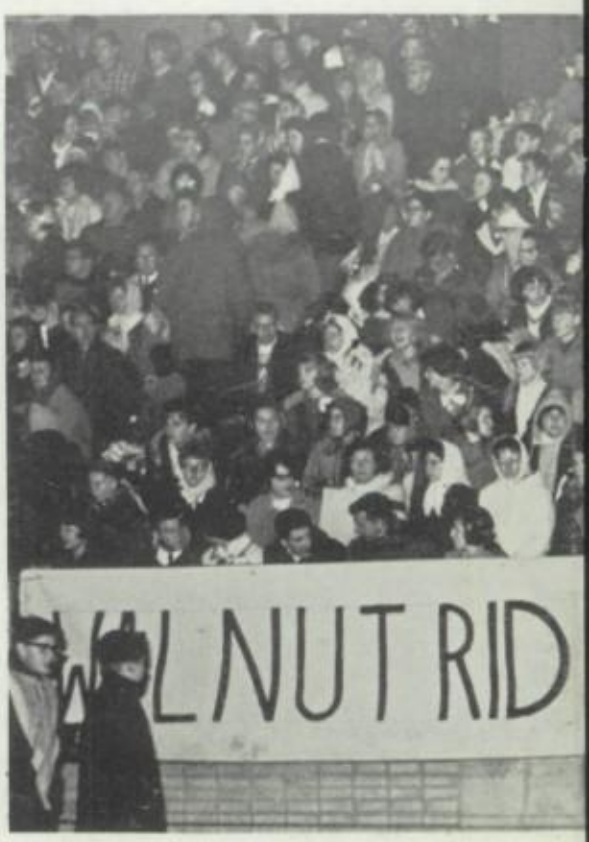


through inquiry we seek . . .
discoveries,
achievements,
satisfaction.



throughout life . . .
we continue to search . . .
for an image,
an identity . . .
for ourselves.

student body



we seek. . .
companionship. . .
the secure, warm
feeling of being among friends. . .
the happiness of being a part of something. . .
even 1/250 of the junior class or 1/700 of the walnut ridge senior high.

Mike Hurwitz as the Mahjah explains his mystical powers to Uncle Phineas, Craig Hewitt, in the Senior Class play, "Great Caesar's Ghost."

Gypsy fortune-teller Encke King gazes into his crystal ball at the Senior Banquet to tell Seniors of their future in the Land of Brigadoon.

Deidra McMillin hands out place cards to Seniors Eddie Radcliffe, Vicki Montoney, Deanna Scott, Pete Kinzly, and Zeke Barber as they arrive at the Senior Banquet.

brigadoon

walk across a bridge...
to thatched roofs,
a wishing well,
a quiet village and
enchantment...
BRIGADOON.

Charla Angles and Jay Hill stop to make a wish.

Dana Rutledge and his date pause for a quiet moment on the bridge.

Seniors and dates dance to the band of Jimmy. Lloyd at their last school social function.

Pete Butterfield and Vicki Montoney are greeted by hostesses Susan Patterson and Beth Pinnick as they enter the Land of Brigadoon.

Chuck Corbett, Bonnie Klock, Judy Hoskins and Bob Crocetti stop for one moment and become spectators as they watch the photographer.

An electrical storm climaxes the baccalaureate service, as the lights go out.

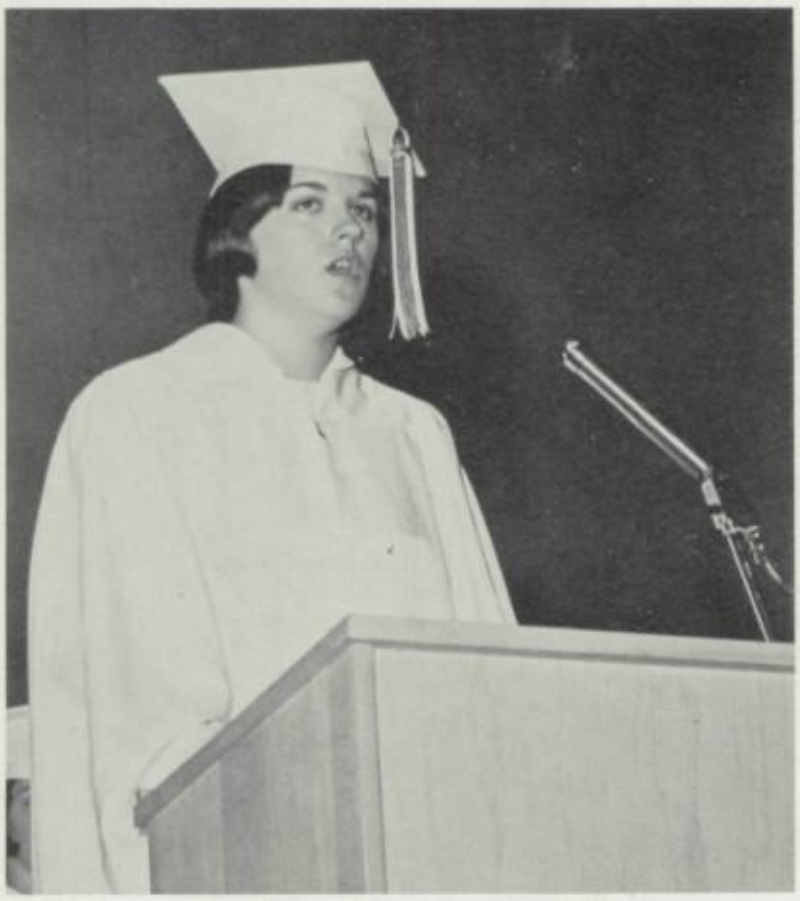
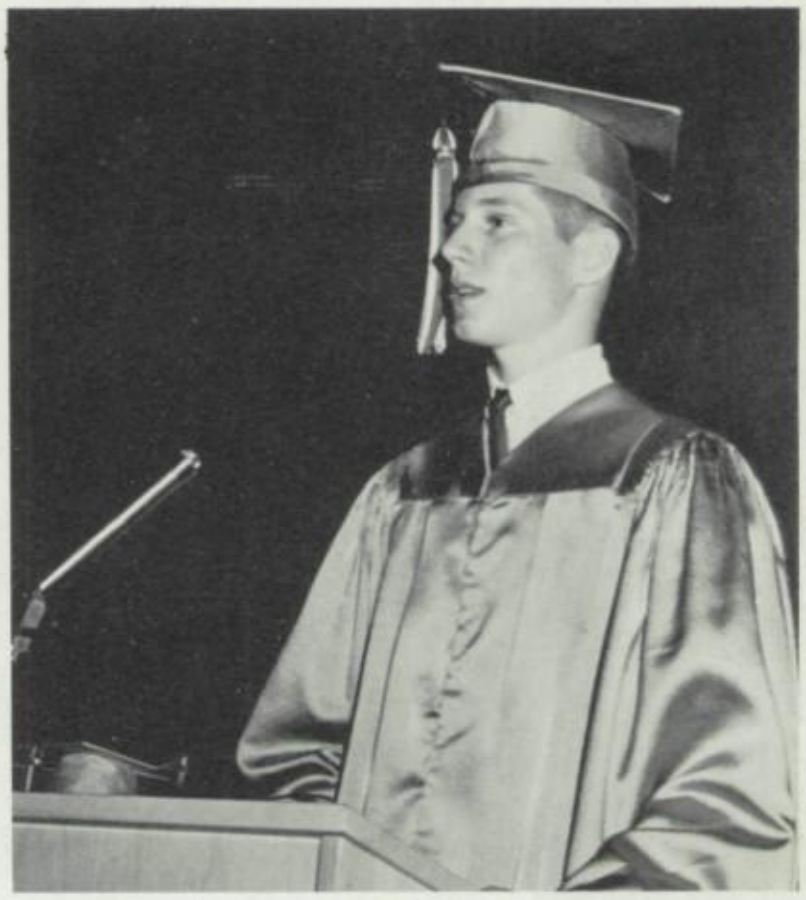
senior high graduation. . .

During commencement, Mr. Maxwell leads senior members of the choir for the last time.





"Lest We Forget" and "Time of Triumph, " topics of class speakers, Mary Jane Goldthwaite and Peter Butterfield, respectively.

Mr. Rudi hands the diploma with distinction to graduating senior, Paul Barans.

Graduates of Walnut Ridge begin the recessional down the aisle.

Pete Butterfield, Linda Finn, Deanna Scott, and Jack Brown find a rare moment for relaxation.

from the crowd . . . leaders emerge

Ideals. . . opinions of the senior class are voiced by election of the class officers. Late in the fall the duties and responsibilities of representing the '65' seniors were assumed by the president, Pete Butterfield; vice-president, Jack Brown; secretary, Linda Finn; and treasurer, Deanna Scott.

Halfback Bill Masch is brought down by a North defender after picking up crucial yardage. Scots' Jim Waller and Gary Carter look on to see if Masch picked up the much needed first down.

The Scots' 1964-65 football team started in its fourth year of gridiron action with an impressive pre-season record. The Scots romped over three teams straight by sizeable margins.

When the football season got into full swing, the Scots were unable to cope with the much larger and stronger teams they had to play.

They bowed to DeSales (Catholic League Co-champs), Marion Franklin, Linden, McKinley, Central, (all City League powers) and Zanesville (Central Ohio Runner-up).

Quarterback Dave Feyh slips through two would-be tacklers in the 14-8 victory over North.

The calm before the storm.

Managers Gary Conkle and Tom Hilliker are caught in some pre-game hijinks by head coach Ralph Webster.

Due to many injuries which were very costly to the team, the Scots were unable to find the needed replacements to bolster their attack.

On the bright side of the season, the Polar Bears of North and the Rebels of South High School fell to defeat at the hands of the Scots.

The team also placed Pat Beveridge on the All-City team as a defensive tackle. Pat went on to be placed on the All-District team and received honorable mention on the All-State team.

The Scots finished with a 2-7 record overall and a 2-5 record in the City League.

Caught in the act of victorious shenanigans, jubilant Scot gridders prepare to leave the locker room after a game.

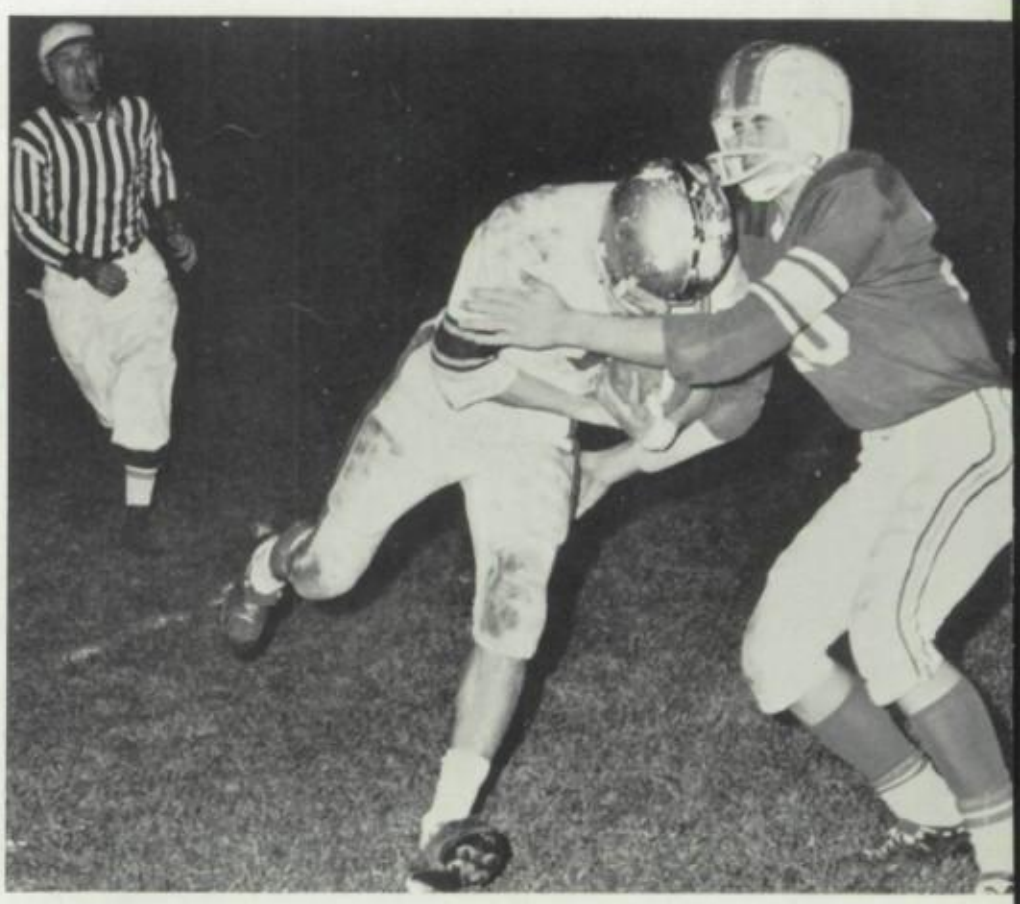
"Even I'd be out by this time!" say impatient girls while waiting for some Scot gridders to emerge from the locker room. The girls are: standing; Ginger Rueckl, Sandy George, Bonnie Aillet, and Lynn Burget. Sitting; Diane Hagg, and Judy Oravec.

Fullback Larry Baer Scampers around South's end for a sizeable gain to add to the 30-14 victory.

1964-1965 football team

Hard hitting action, roaring crowds, and the exhilaration of a score all add to the magic of football. Win or lose the Scot's played hard, turning all that they had practiced for so hard the previous week into this magic.

A weary Scot offense gets a breather between quarters.



"It's so easy I can do it with my eyes closed!" says defensive halfback Jeff Jones.

Scots Cross-Countrymen Mike Feyh and Ken Schwartz reflect silently as the meet is about to begin.

Although their win-and-loss record was not too good the Scots Cross-Country team finished another hard-fought season in good fashion.

The predominately senior squad used all of our sixty acre campus in their struggles to get themselves in good condition for the tough meets to come.

This hard work proved beneficial when the Scots placed two boys in the state meet. They were Ken Schwartz and captain Rick Mettle. Rick is also credited for holding the school record with a time of 10:04.2 for the two mile run.

Other Lettermen who put in their share of sweat to round out the team were Zeke Barber, Gary Britton, Bob Crocetti, Mike Lower, Larry Salyer, Russ Houch, and the lone underclassman Mike Feyh.

Ken Schwartz, Scots all-round track man, shows his winning speed in an attemp to take first place at the Indoor Track meet.

The Scots' 64-65 basketball season saw many heartbreaks due to close, hard-fighting games.

Basketball fans were thrilled nearly every week by games in which a single basket would spell the difference between victory and defeat.

Notably, it was touch-and-go up to the final seconds in the Walnut Ridge vs. Eastmoor, Eastmoor going on to become District Champion.

The Scots' hard-fighting roundball squad was lead by senior co-captains Dave Feyh and Gary Carter. Juniors Pat Beveridge (second team All-City), Rick Houchen (honorable mention All-City), and Mike Tanner helped greatly in rounding out the squad.

Quick reflexes and fast action make Dave Walter, Scot first baseman, one of the best.

The hard working Scots baseball team lead by All-City catcher Dave Feyh and the fine coaching of Mr. Cordle finished the season with a very respectable 9-9 record.

Although caught in a slump in the middle of the season the Scots pulled out of it to defeat the Whetstone Braves and the East High Tigers in the last two league games.

Many hopes of future wins are placed upon this year's powerful pitching staff of juniors Ron Remy, Chuck Crook, Rip Van Winkle, and Dennis Anderson; and sophomore Joel Goldhammer.

national honor society

scholarship, leadership, service, character

To be considered for National Honor Society a student must have attended Walnut Ridge for at least one semester, and be a member of the Senior Class. He must have had a 3.5 average in grades 9-12, with no more than one "c".

If a student meets these scholastic requirements he is then considered for National Senior Honor Society on the basis of his leadership in school clubs; his services to school organizations and activities; and his goals, ideals, and standards.

Twelve students were made members of National Senior Honor Society this year, on the basis of scholarship, leadership, service, and character.

Joyce Bailey receives her pin and certificate from Mrs. Jones and Mr. Thatcher at the honor assembly.

administration

This year Student Council set up the Inter-Club Council to promote cooperation among the school organizations. The Inter-Club Council helps organizations plan stronger programs with fewer problems.

Homecoming was again under the direction of Student Council. This year they chose "Starlight Enchantment" as the theme. "Heather on the Hill" was the theme of the Lad and Lassie dance, also sponsored by Student Council.

As a fund-raising project, Council sold pins to the student body. These gold pins consist of the school initials and the student's year of graduation.

Activities like these help make Student Council a guiding force at Walnut Ridge.

Student Council officers for 1964-65 were Barb Tracy, treasurer; Mary Jane Goldthwaite, president; Kathi Westover, secretary; Chuck Crook, vice-president; and Chuck Corbett, parliamentarian.

german club

The German Club started the year with a kick-off picnic for new members. This was followed by a speaker from Germany and German folk dancing.

In December the Club had its annual Christmas party with the French Club. The French Club also participated in a sleigh ride at Frontier Ranch.

A junior high dance, "Faschings Fest," was sponsored by the Club in February. The theme was Mardi Gras. Also in February the Club presented a one-act play, "Der Bauer und der Teufel," for the PTA.

Election of officers in April was followed by the annual May banquet, at which time the new officers were installed.

vocal music

PTA meetings, assemblies, and contests filled just part of the busy schedule of the vocal music groups. The Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter programs were enhanced by their singing. At the District contest the girls' and mixed ensembles received superior ratings; the boys' ensemble received a rating of excellent.

All music groups participated in the musical "The Mikado" and the spring concert.

At St. John's Arena, the choir was joined by other high school choirs for the annual music festival.

Under the direction of Mr. Jerry Maxwell the vocal groups have developed their talents not only for their own enjoyment, but for the pleasure of others as well.

Mr. Parks, the new auto shop teacher, studies each student's work carefully. Here Carl Quinn prepares to "find that rattle."

Miss McBee, the new 7th grade teacher, knows the value of a laugh. Here Bruce Soble, Charlene Presley, Mike O'Neil, Dan Granger, Margie Van Der Zee, and Sally Yates find that learning really is fun.
